TEACHER - GENERIC DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Below sets out the generic main duties and responsibilities of any teacher at Forest School. Those holding positions of responsibility have specific job descriptions in addition to the duties described below. Above all, Forest School teachers are professionals who carry out their duties responsibly and with regard for the best interests of their pupils and the school.

Teaching and Learning

- Plan, prepare and deliver purposeful and productive lessons to assigned classes.
- Be prepared to innovate and devise imaginatively varied ways of teaching their subjects to inspire pupils.
- Encourage pupils and show enthusiasm for their subject in the classroom.
- Mark work and provide feedback according to departmental and School marking policies, giving appropriate feedback, and maintaining records of pupil's progress in their subject.
- Demonstrate an awareness and understanding of Assessment for Learning strategies and personalise the learning of all pupils, as appropriate.
- Select and use a range of different learning resources and teaching styles, appropriate to subject and topic.
- Participate in mutual lesson observations both within and beyond their department as a part of sharing best practice.
- Use teaching strategies that allow for the full range of ability and learning styles in each class, particularly considering the learning needs of pupils identified as SEND or requiring additional learning support.

Pastoral Responsibilities

Every staff member at Forest has collective responsibility for our pastoral processes and policies. Forest staff contribute to the development of the whole child and demonstrate consistent competence, build outstanding relationships alongside the highest expectations.

Our pastoral foundations are as follows:

- Ensure every pupil is known, liked and valued.
- Ensure every pupil feels safe and secure.
- Ensure earliest intervention and a responsibility for personal development.
- Ensure you are incorporating pupil voice into daily decision-making.
- Ensure you have proactive communication with all stakeholders.

Safeguarding

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is everyone's responsibility. Everyone who comes into contact with children and their families has a role to play. In order to fulfil this responsibility effectively, all practitioners should make sure their approach is child centred. This means that they should consider, at all times, what is in the best interests of the child.

No single practitioner can have a full picture of a child's needs and circumstances. If children and families are to receive the right help at the right time, everyone who comes into contact with them has a role to play in identifying concerns, sharing information and taking prompt action.

- Ensure that all key policies have been read and understood, including KCSIE Part 1
- Attend Safeguarding and Child Protection training, including updates and Prevent
- Complete an annual declaration regarding the status of DBS

Health and Safety:

- Be familiar with and implement all School Policies and Procedures.

Other Professional Duties

- Support and foster the aims of the school.
- Make themselves familiar with the contents of the Staff Handbook, the Staff Code of Conduct, the School's aims and policies and endeavour to follow these closely.
- Carry out such duties, including breaktime supervision, cover for absent colleagues and examination invigilation, as are allocated to them by their Head of Department or Senior Teachers, punctually and efficiently.
- Attend staff meetings and briefings, parents' evenings, Commemoration Day, inset sessions and similar important functions both in and out of normal School hours, and participate in Open Days for prospective parents, carers, and pupils.
- Notify their Head of Department and the Absence Managers as early as possible if they are going to be absent from School and set rigorous, appropriate work.
- Attend relevant training each year, after obtaining the consent of their Head of Department and the CPD Budget holder.
- Take part in the school's performance management scheme and appraisal.

This generic description should be read alongside the following documents:

- Staff Code of Conduct
- Teaching and Learning Policy/Forest Teacher Framework
- Tutor Job Description
- Departmental Handbook(s)
