James Allen's Girls' School

JAMES ALLEN'S GIRLS' SCHOOL

With its distinctive heritage as the oldest independent girls' school in London, James Allen's Girls' School, JAGS, provides a forward-thinking and contemporary education for over 1200 girls aged 4 to 18.

Located in the London borough of Southwark, JAGS has a diverse school community and is committed to inclusive recruitment and inclusion in the workplace. The school has entered an exciting new phase in its development and this post presents the opportunity to work in a community without barriers to full participation. JAGS recognises that celebrating the full diversity of staff and students has a positive impact on all and invites applications from candidates from a broad range of backgrounds.

Awarded the title of London Independent School of the Year 2024 by the Sunday Times, the school has entered an exciting new phase in its development. Your input will help to bring a bold educational vision to life for all students and colleagues as we work together to develop this already exceptional school in its next chapter.

PE GAP ASSSISTANT (NETBALL)

MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD

I am delighted that you are interested in joining the JAGS community. As Head, it's absolutely my belief that all girls should be given the opportunity to grow and flourish in an environment where there is no limit to their ambitions.

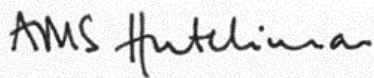

At JAGS you will find a happy, diverse and dynamic community, rooted in academic excellence and yet fully committed to the breadth of a holistic education both in and out of the classroom. Compassion and commitment are central to our ethos, in this environment that values individuality and inclusivity.

Our school aims, both in and out of the classroom, are clear:

- To celebrate our diverse and inclusive community
- To champion social awareness and sustainability
- To empower courage, creativity and compassion in each student
- To inspire aspirational and authentic lifelong learners and leaders
- To nurture respectful, resilient and kind individuals

It is an enormous privilege to lead this exceptional school, where all members of our school community share a passion for life and learning.

I hope that this matches your educational vision and look forward to welcoming you soon.

MRS ALEX HUTCHINSON, MA (OXON) PGCE

Overview

This is an exciting opportunity for a PE Gap Assistant (Netball) to join our outstanding Physical Education (PE) Department. The role will suit an enthusiastic sports person who is passionate about Netball and will provide an exciting opportunity to gain extensive and worthwhile experience of working in a large independent School. This role would be particularly attractive to individuals considering a career in education, especially within the PE field.

The purpose of the role is to support all PE teaching staff in a range of activities across PE Department, weighted toward supporting the delivery of Netball classes, supporting Netball teams throughout the academic year and ensuring the smooth delivery of the PE curriculum and Co-Curriculum.

The ideal candidate will be hard-working, have a keen interest in sport, able to work unsupervised, and carry out duties with a responsible attitude, be adaptable, and be flexible in their approach to duties.

Main Responsibilities

- Support the PE department to deliver the highest standard of teaching by setting high, clear and consistent expectations, creating an environment which allows all students to thrive
- Assist and support PE teachers and coaches with the delivery of the PE curriculum and co-curriculum as directed
- Demonstrate a passionate commitment to PE and Games and a pursuit of excellence in collaboration with colleagues and pupils
- Set high, clear and consistent expectations, to create an environment which allows all children to thrive and make contributions
- Support PE lessons across all areas of the School, across Key Stage 1 to Key Stage 5
- Take responsibility for a representative sports team in each term including on match days
- Support the organisation of sports teams and sports equipment for PE lessons across a range of sports
- Support with the preparation, coaching and umpiring of Netball as a main sport - but also assisting with all other sports offered as part of the School curriculum

- Ensure that all activities undertaken comply with good practice in relation to Health and Safety
- Assist in the upkeep of display boards
- Assisting with the administrative running of the PE Department, including the preparation of class lists and registers
- Prepare equipment and resources for lessons and co-curricular activities
- Ensure the safety, welfare and good conduct of pupils
- Undertake any other duties commensurate with the role as required by the Director of Sport from time to time
- To participate in other such duties as may be reasonably required.

PE GAP ASSISTANT (NETBALL)
