

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Teacher of Maths & Key Stage Coordinator

Salary: MPR/UPR plus TLR (value to be determined)

JOB PURPOSE

To deliver an appropriate programme of teaching at Key Stages 3 and 4 ensuring high standards of teaching, learning and progress for all students.

To work with the Director of Maths with responsibility for key stage coordination.

KEY RESULT AREAS

Responsible for the coordination of a key stage curriculum provision including development of schemes of learning working with staff across Trust secondary schools.

Support the Director of Maths with curriculum and teaching priorities within the maths department.

Analysis of school and national data for the key stage to effectively identify areas of strength and areas for development that will inform interventions, targets and teaching methods across the key stage.

Support the development and enhancing teaching practice of all teachers of Mathematics, evaluating the quality of teaching, securing and sustaining the effective delivery of the subject.

Support the Director of Maths in monitoring and evaluating progress towards targets from improvement plans within the context of the School Improvement Plan.

Undertake a timetable of teaching across key stages 3 and 4.

Ensure high standards of teaching and learning and progress for all students.

Work with colleagues to further develop innovative and engaging schemes of work, lesson plans and related learning resources that engage students and encourage progress.

Provide regular updates on student progress based on accurate internal assessment data and to plan effective interventions as needed.

Ensure all students make at least expected progress based on KS2 data, baseline assessments and internal data.

Provide pastoral care for students including carrying out the role of tutor.

Keep up to date with national development in the curriculum area, teaching practice and methodology, contributing to the CPD programme where appropriate.

Ensuring that all students in classes taught, including identified vulnerable groups, have equal access to the curriculum.

Contribute to the procedures for quality assurance, including the use of data, in line with whole school policy and practice and as required.

Contribute to and deliver supportive intervention when a student's progress is limited by negative attitudes, misbehaviour, unsatisfactory attendance and punctuality, long term illness or other factors.

Consistently promote the Trust and individual academies in a positive light to its wider community, upholding the policies and procedures agreed by the Governing Body.

Act as a role model for staff and students, displaying positive behaviours at all times.

Undertake any other duties commensurate with the grade of the post as directed by the Headteacher.

VARIATION IN THE ROLE

Given the dynamic nature of the role and structure of TCAT, it must be accepted that, as TCAT's work develops and changes, there will be a need for adjustments to the role and responsibilities of the post. The duties specified above are, therefore, not to be regarded as either exclusive or exhaustive. They may change from time to time commensurate with the grading level of the post and following consultation with the member of staff.

EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY

TCAT is committed to equality and diversity for all members of society. TCAT will take action to discharge this responsibility but many of the actions will rely on individual staff members at TCAT embracing their responsibilities with such a commitment and ensuring a positive and collaborative approach to Equality and Diversity. This will require staff to support TCAT's initiatives on Equality and Diversity which will include embracing development and training designed to enhance practices and the experiences of staff, students and visitors to TCAT with an all inclusive approach that celebrates differences. Failure to embrace these commitments may lead to formal action.

If you as a member of staff identify how you or TCAT can improve its practice on Equality and Diversity, please contact the Chief Operating Officer.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

All members of staff have a duty to maintain safe and clean conditions in their work area and co-operate with TCAT on matters of Health and Safety. This will include assisting with undertaking risk assessments and carrying out appropriate actions as required. Staff are required to refer to TCAT Health and Safety Policies in respect to their specific duties and responsibilities.

STAFF DEVELOPMENT

All staff are required to participate fully in TCAT Staff Development programmes and have a responsibility to identify their own professional development needs in conjunction with their line manager.

COMMITMENT TO SAFEGUARDING VULNERABLE GROUPS

TCAT is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, as well as vulnerable adults, and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.