An Introduction from the Co-Headteachers

Bramingham Primary School is unique in many ways. We are a fully inclusive school, and our overriding aim is to meet the learning needs of all our children, where every individual, every achievement and every moment matters. All our staff are fully committed to this aim, and we are looking for a leader who has the same ethos and is ready to join our team.

The safety and wellbeing of our children is at the heart of all we do. Our 4Rs – Respect, Responsibility, Resilience, and Relationships – underpin everything we do and believe in. These core values form the foundation of our school's culture, guiding our learning, behaviour, and sense of community.

Our children are encouraged to think as individuals, to question, to value mistakes as learning opportunities and to take a keen interest in the world in which they live. To this end, we are proud to ensure that our curriculum is broad and balanced, offering all children the chance to develop their learning across all areas, in the way that is most appropriate for them.

We have a resourced provision for children who have medical and/or physical needs. This enables many children to be part of our wonderful school while still receiving the specialist care that they need.

Children, parents, staff and governors all feel proud to be part of the Bramingham community. As a school, we are committed to working with families to support children in their lifelong learning and we hope that all visitors to the school feel welcome and inspired as they walk through our doors.

If you are passionate about inclusive education and eager to make a real difference to the lives of children, we would love to welcome you to Bramingham Primary School. Please come and visit and we look forward to reading your application.

Bramingham Primary is a unique school where every individual, every achievement and every moment matters.

We provide a happy, safe and caring environment that nurtures, inspires and celebrates individuality. We develop independent, self-confident, resilient and inquisitive learners who have high aspirations.

We have identified 6 steps that will enable our vision to be achieved

Values based Education

Our values underpin our school ethos curriculum. All adults model our positive universal values and children develop reflective practices to become ethically intelligent individuals.

High expectations

Doing the right thing all day, every day and taking great pride in what we do. Strive to be the best that we can be.

Curiosity and Challenge

Asking the right questions at the right time. Being curious about the world, taking risks and seeking the answers to increase our knowledge and understanding.

Aspiration to inspire

Aim high and believe that you can achieve.

Relationships

Build meaningful, positive relationships. Be able to communicate effectively and work collaboratively. To show care, kindness and understanding.

Resilience

Never giving up when faced with a challenge. Show perseverance and determination, in order to become independent life-long learners.

OUR CHILDREN

OUR PLAN

FOR THIS YEAR

All staff know what they are teaching, why they are teaching it and when is best to teach it in all areas of the curriculum.

Use assessment data to identify children who need additional support or challenge and adapt teaching accordingly.

Engage parents through workshops to support language and writing development at home.

Develop and implement a consistent, school-wide approach to assessment in foundation subjects focusing on knowledge retention and application.

To achieve the Rights Respecting School's Silver Award.

Ensure careful planning of provision and targeted support to ensure the GLD measure is above national by the end of reception and children are Year 1 ready.

All staff and pupils understand and follow the high expectations for behaviour consistently and with transparency with an equitable approach to rewards and sanctions.

Develop teaching assistant (TA) skill set and deployment to meet learner needs effectively.

Enhance language development and writing outcomes across the school.

Every individual, every achievement and every moment matters
